One Stop Shopping with this Wonderful Book!By A CustomerIt seems like everyone I know is either getting married or starting a family this year. I love Together: Creating Family Traditions. It's the perfect bridal shower / baby shower gift, as it covers everything from creative ideas to recipes to family journaling. (The recipes for mom's blueberry muffins and Grandmother Borland's cookies are yummy!) The pictures are vivid and beautiful, the prose is thought-provoking and tenderly written, and the little touches, like the satin ribbon bookmark, are just lovely. I bought multiple copies to give as gifts, and have received a bevy of ecstatic thank-you notes from brides-to-be and mothers-to-be.

Rediscover the joys of childhood. Together is a beautifully photographed gift book that the whole family will enjoy. What Martha Stewart did for entertaining, Together does for parenting. Together's warm, personal message fills you with memories of your own childhood, and shows you how to share those wonderful times with your children. This is a beautiful book created to involve parents with their own children through seasonal projects, irresistible recipes, and interactive activities for the whole family. Photographs of children climbing on a bale of hay, families stuffing a scarecrow together, stringing holiday garlands, catching fireflies, or simply picking flowers - all events that evoke nostalgia from a simpler period. These fun, yet timeless activities require nothing mechanical, automated, or electronic - just good old-fashioned togetherness. Together: Creating Family Traditions inspires moms and dads to start their own traditions with their children. A 'must have' for all parents - a book that can be passed from generation to generation. Together makes an ideal gift not only for the current season, but a welcome contribution for baby showers, birthdays, and holiday celebrations. A family gift of sharing that is priceless. Winner of 4 book industry awards.

About the Author Award winning authors and experienced media guests, Rondi Hillstrom Davis and Janell Sewall Oakes believe that parents today need to shift the focus of the time they spend with their children. With strong connections to their families and local communities, both women are the living spirit of what back-to-basics parenting is all about. We can all slow down and see the world through a child's eye. Stop and remember for a second what was important from your own childhood. Was it an outing or vacation? Baking cookies with your grandmother? Fulfillment is in the journey, more so than the destination. We've forgotten how simple things can change us. Both authors want to help families discover what they can do together, strengthen family bonds, develop happier, more creative kids, and more fulfilled parents. Rondi and Janell will take you back to a time when simple creative projects were shared and enjoyed by the entire family. Their beautiful book, Together: Creating Family Traditions received numerous awards, including a Benjamin Franklin Award for Best How-to Book, and a ForeWord Book of the Year Award in the Family and Relationships category.
